

Barrett King Performing Arts Scholarship

Barrett King July 1, 1947 – January 17, 2021.

Barrett King was a highly regarded member of the Nassau County theatre community. He was a graduate of the University of Georgia, and he served in the U.S. Army infantry for over 30 years' active duty and reserves, retiring as a colonel. After active duty, he worked as a journalist for the Atlanta Constitution, then for the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, helping with the 1996 Summer Olympics. He moved from Conyers to St. Marys as county administrator, and he eventually retired as deputy director of the City of Jacksonville Library System.

Barrett started his stage career at the age of six and participated during all his school years, including college. He was involved in numerous community theatres in Metro Atlanta, northeast Florida, and southeast Georgia. He was an actor, director, co-director, and stage manager at many venues.

Barrett's productions included Bell, Book and Candle, Night of the Iguana, The Odd Couple, To Kill a Mockingbird, The Music Man, Man of La Mancha, Fantasticks, Father of the Bride, Inherit the Wind, and Miracle on 34th Street, plus many more. He was an integral part of Blue Fire Theatre's inaugural production, playing the iconic role of Big Daddy in Cat on a Hot Tin Roof.

Barrett King was, without a doubt, unique in his ability to become the characters he portrayed on stage. We are honored that his loving wife Betty gave us her blessing to name our performing arts scholarship in his memory. Thank you, Barrett, for all the wonderful characters you brought to life and the immense joy you brought to our community.
